Chapter

The National Junior Honor Society is an organization that recognizes and encourages academic achievement while developing other characteristics essential to democracy.

Members are selected for membership by a Faculty Council, which is made up of teachers and an administrator.

Scholarship

A student who consistently maintains an average of 85% or higher and shows responsibility and contributes positively in the classroom

Leadership

A student who demonstrates leadership in promoting school activities, upholds school ideals, exercises a positive influence on peers, has a positive attitude, inspires a positive attitude in others and is dependable

Character

A student who takes constructive criticism, upholds principles of morality and ethics, complies with school regulations, and is trustworthy

Citizenship

A student who understands the importance of civic involvement, has a high regard for freedom, justice, and a respect for the American form of government.

Service

A student who volunteers, is dependable, is well-organized, works well with others, and shows courtesy by assisting visitors, teachers, and other students.

Dismissal

Members are expected to continue to demonstrate the qualities of:

Scholarship
Leadership
Service

Students failing to meet one or all of these standards will be warned orally. If it continues a student will be put on probation. If the issue still is not resolved we will have a hearing. Depending on the outcome a member may be dismissed.

In the event of a flagrant violation of school or civic law, a warning is not necessary.

A student who is dismissed or who resigns may not be a National Junior Honor Society Member in the future.

They may seek membership to National Honor Society in High School.
