Dear CES Families:

We are excited to introduce to you a new service for families called

PEACE AT HOME.

This is a web-based service that provides online classes and recorded webinars for parents on a variety of topics. Ruth Freeman is the creator of this product. She has given parent workshops for us in the past at CES and they have been very well received.

We are sending a flyer home on Monday to all students. This service is available to all Canterbury families. Feel free to share!

We are seeking parent volunteers to become ambassadors for the program. Please see flyer below for more information. We have remote information sessions planned for 11/5/2020; one at 2:30 and one at 7 pm.

Please feel free to reach out to our PEACE AT HOME team with any questions or if you are interested in being an ambassador for the program!
