November 13, 2020

Happy Friday Baldwin families!

I hope you have a restful, safe, and relaxing weekend planned ahead! Before the weekend begins, I wanted to share some important information with all of you.

A reminder that grades for trimester 1 officially close today. Please know that report cards will be coming home next Friday, November 20, not on Thursday the 19th.

In addition, parent conferences are running on the half days on November 23 and 24. If you have not already signed up for a parent conference time slot, please visit our website to do so. Remember, you may only sign up for one timeslot per child. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to reach out to me for assistance!

Third, please note that November 23, 24, and 25 are all early-dismissal half days and school will be closed on November 26 and 27 for the Thanksgiving holidays. On that note, please do your best to follow all safety protocols during the Thanksgiving holiday. It is important for all Canterbury community members to do their part so that we can reduce the spread of Covid-19.

Next, please know that next Tuesday, November 17 is our final collection day for the Canterbury Cares food drive. Please send in any non-perishables that you would like to donate for our community members in need. All donations will be delivered to the food pantry on Tuesday afternoon.

Finally, we are noticing an uptick in issues with student dress-code issues. Please take some time to go over the dress code in the student handbook with your students and to ensure they have a clear understanding of what is and isn't considered appropriate clothing for school.

Thank you all and have a great weekend!
