

First Grade

Literacy

Manipulates sounds in words

Demonstrates understanding of spoken words, syllables, and sounds (phonemes)

Acquires and applies grade level phonics

Reads high frequency words automatically

Reads grade level material fluently and accurately to support comprehension

Listens and responds to text with understanding

Asks and answers questions to gather information, clarify and extend thinking

Describes characters, setting and major events in a story

Identifies and utilizes text features in both fiction and non-fiction

Engages in group discussions to deepen understanding

Identifies the main topic and retells key ideas and details in informational texts

Uses conventional spelling of high-frequency words

Uses grade appropriate conventions in writing, (capitals and punctuation)

Applies writing elements taught

Focuses writing on one topic

Uses elaboration in writing

Prints legibly with appropriate spacing and size

Applies phonics skills in writing

Numeracy

Counts on and identifies numbers to 120

Writes numbers through 120

Demonstrates understanding of place value – tens and ones

Compares and records two-digit numbers using greater than, less than and equal to

Knows addition and subtraction facts fluently through 10

Demonstrates an understanding of addition and subtraction of two-digit numbers

Represents and solves problems involving addition and subtraction

Uses standard and non-standard units to estimate, compare and measure length

Tells and writes time to the hour and half hour

Represents and interprets data

Identifies defining attributes of 2D and 3D figures

Partitions circles and rectangles into equal shares and describes the shares using fraction vocabulary

Insert pictures of students